Select the type of access:

School Teacher

Individualized student educational plans connected to all assessments and to the state and district curriculum provide the focus needed for your educational community of students, parents and teachers.

School Principal or School Administrator

Individualized student educational plans connected to all assessments and to the state and district curriculum provide the focus needed for your educational community of students, parents and teachers.

District Superintendent or District Administrator

Easy access to NCLB reports provides the information required for student achievement in a very teacher friendly manner engaging all stakeholders in your district.

Regional Educational Agency Administrator

View powerful assessment reports and state curriculum resources of all the districts and schools in your region.

State Educational Agency Administrator

A longitudinal data warehouse using data definitions from the National Center for Education Statistics (NCES) and the Performance Based Data Management Initiative (PDBMI) is the cornerstone for Triand's services to state agencies which include Unique Student IDs and sending transcripts to colleges.

Parent

Keeping in touch with your child's teachers, monitoring your student's achievement and knowing what homework is due gives you the information needed to help your child be successful in class.

3. Select your state where you are a teacher or administrator.
