Mask Mandate Review of Numbers

10 Dashboard from 9.4.2021 C19 Dashboard.jpg

Jason Barrett was available to answer questions. The Board had no questions and expressed appreciation for the updates every Friday.

Randall Bolinger asked “how to stop the “missing class” calls to parents when a student is sent home quarantined. He said it become an annoyance to receive the multiple daily robo calls when the parent is already aware the student is out of school. It was noted that Ms. Katina Frederick has been covering classes as there is a shortage of subs, so she probably didn’t get the Covid Quarantine info in today. It is something they are aware of and working on.

Emergency Amendment to Attendance Policy

11 Handbook Addendum for School Year FY 22.pdf - 11 Handbook Addendum.pdf

Ms. Metz noted minor changes including the addition of Gentry Middle School to JEDB – Tardies and the correction to the phone call procedures accepted for first the first 5 days of a student absence and the written excuse requirements changed from a max of 6 days to 5 days maximum.

Jon Holt moved to accept the corrections as presented and Gary Dunlap seconded. The vote carried 6-0.

ARP ESSER Budget – Christie Toland presenting

12 Updated September 27, 2022 ARP ESSER Plan for Use of Funds.docx-2 \(1\).pdf

It was noted that the State disallowed the use of program code 191- Maintenance of Equity, based on the District’s enrollment increase. One maintenance project was not approved. Funds have been reallocated.

Randall Bolinger moved to accept the ARP ESSER Budget as presented and Gary Dunlap seconded. The vote carried 6-0.
