Arkansas Peace Week Art Contest Finalist Announced

LITTLE ROCK: Arkansas Peace Week is pleased to announce the finalists for its Youth Art Contest.

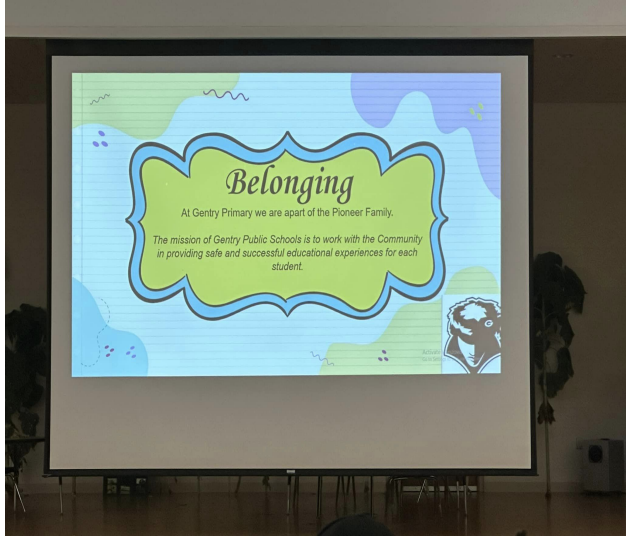

Award winners will be announced at an event at the Arkansas State Capitol Rotunda on September 23. The essay winner will be announced at 1pm. Our Art Contest finalist's work will be displayed at the Arkansas State Capitol Rotunda, September 17 -24, 2023. These events are free and open to the public. Photos of the display are on our facebook Group here: <https://www.facebook.com/groups/130260813976745/>

We received over 2000 art entries from all over the state. We thank all our entrants. They have shown great skill and creativity in their art; more importantly they have contributed to the critical work of peacemaking.

The Arkansas Peace Week Art Contest, for 1st -12th Grade Students, features art pieces addressing the theme:

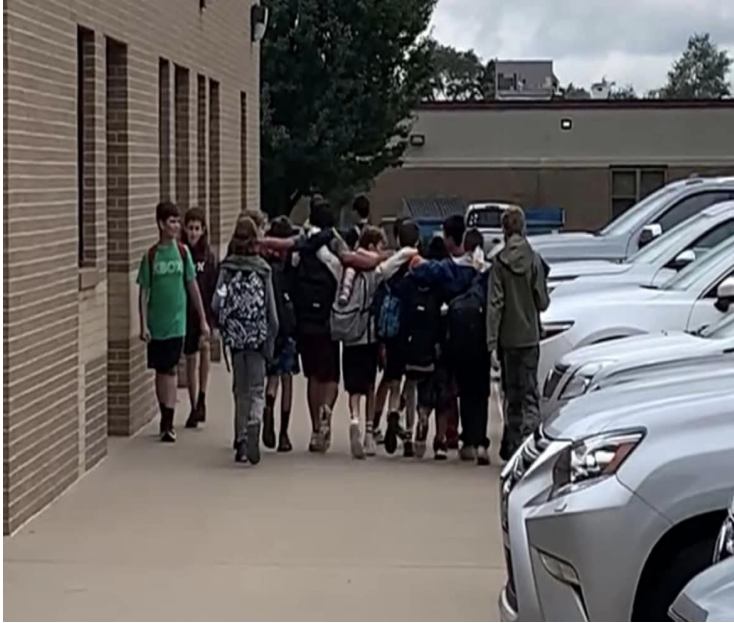

- “What does peace mean to you? Depict a more peaceful community in your art entry.”
